Subject: RE: [External] RE: Docket No. 2022-2-E - Hearing Schedule Response -- DUE 4/5/22 NO LATER THAN 4:45 PM

Dear Parties and Counsel of Record:

In response to Attorney Anzelmo's inquiry concerning appearance in person and the use of panels, the hearing was noticed by the Clerk's Office as virtual. Per the Clerk's Office, the parties and their witnesses are welcome to appear in person in the Commission Hearing Room. We need to know who will be in person so that accommodations can be made in the Hearing room to protect all present. In the Virtual Media Plan Survey (see email dated 4/4/22), there was a question about appearance in person or appearing virtually. The parties/counsel of record were to indicate whether they and their witnesses will be attending in person or virtually. If you have already answered the Virtual Media Plan Survey, but need to change your answer, please let me as soon as possible.

Additionally, the presiding Chairman Commissioner does not object to the use of witness panels in the Hearing Room in this matter. Thus, it is expected that witness panels will be used for in person testimony in the Hearing room unless there is some objection by another. Please note that witness panels cannot be used virtually.

I hope that this helps all parties. If you or any party need to change a response related to the Virtual Media Plan Survey on whether or not you or your witnesses will be participating and attending the hearing in person at the Commission Offices, please advise as soon as possible.

Thank you.

Subject: [External] RE: Docket No. 2022-2-E - Hearing Schedule Response -- DUE 4/5/22 NO LATER THAN 4:45 PM

Ms. Wessinger-Hill,

The Commission's proposed schedule works for the Company. Some of the Company's witnesses have appearance conflicts as follows:

1. Rose M. Jackson and Henry E. Delk will be unavailable on Monday, April 11th, and Tuesday, April 12th;
2. Mark C. Furtick will be unavailable on Monday, April 11th;
3. Tom A. Brookmire will be unavailable Friday, April 8th; Monday, April 11th; and Tuesday, April 12th.

I do have one other item to bring to your attention. On March 24th, the Company responded to the Commission's Order of Witness request and asked the Company be permitted to appear in-person in the hearing room and offered to use panels for witness presentation. I would appreciate if you are able to let us know if the Commission has any updates on those requests so we can meet the Commission's expectation.

Thank you,
Michael Anzelmo

EXTERNAL EMAIL; use caution with links and attachments

Dear Parties and Counselors of Record:

Thank you for your email, attorney Hair. In response, the Commission plans to resume the hearing following the Commission Business Meeting on Thursday, April 7, 2022. The Business Meeting begins at 2:00 p.m. and is not expected to last past 3:00 p.m. On Thursday, April 7th, the parties and witnesses should plan to begin the hearing at 10:00 a.m., recede for lunch at 1:00 p.m. and then to return to the hearing on or about 3:00 p.m. following the Commission's Business Meeting. The Commission is likely to continue until about 5:00 p.m. on Thursday.

If the hearing does not conclude on Thursday, then the parties should plan and expect for the Hearing to continue each day thereafter until the hearing is adjourned. If the hearing continues onto Friday, April 8, 2022, the expected start time would be no earlier than 10:30 a.m. Typically, the Commission would recess for lunch from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. The exact time, of course, can be contingent upon a natural stopping point in the proceeding. The Commission is likely to continue after lunch to around 5:00 p.m.

If the hearing does not conclude on Friday, then the parties should plan and expect for the hearing to resume on Monday, April 11th, 2022 beginning at 9:00 a.m. Remember Commission Offices open at 8:15 a.m. There would be a lunch break between 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. (or around that time period). Once the hearing resumes following lunch, the hearing would continue to around 5:00 p.m. The same estimated schedule would exist for Tuesday, April 12th, if needed.

It is requested that the parties please advise no later than close of business today (4:45 p.m.) with copy to all parties of record whether there are any issues with the proposed schedule for attorneys or witnesses, as well as confirm your availability for the same. In other words, does any attorney or witness have issue/conflict with being available to appear on Friday, April 8th; Monday, April 11th; or Tuesday, April 12th, as needed to complete the full hearing in this matter? If you do, please advise of the conflict or unavailable time(s). It is also requested for you to confirm your availability with the estimated schedule.

Please note that the above schedule (other than the beginning time of 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, April 7th) is subject to change due to the parties and changes in the Commission/Commissioners schedule. The lunch break time and daily ending times are also estimates subject to change and may be flexible for natural stopping points in the witness' testimony and/or cross examination by the parties. The schedule above does not consider or include any brief breaks during the proceeding.

If you can reply or advise sooner that the deadline noted above, it is appreciated. All comments and responses are appreciated.

I thank you for your attention to this matter.

With kind regards, I am

Subject: Docket No. 2022-2-E - Hearing Schedule

David:

Good Morning. I am reaching out to you with a logistical question concerning the upcoming hearing in Docket No. 2022-2-E.

I understand that we are due to begin at 10:00 am on Thursday, April 7, and that the Commission has a scheduled business meeting at 2:00 pm that afternoon. To the extent that you are able to share with the parties so that we may, in turn, provide guidance to our witnesses, does the Commission anticipate dismissing the parties prior to the 2:00 pm meeting and then resuming once that meeting is over? Moreover, in the event it becomes necessary to continue the hearing beyond Thursday, is there a possibility that we would reconvene on Friday, April 8?

I appreciate any information you are able to share with us at this time. Thank you and we look forward to seeing the parties on Thursday.

Warm regards,
